Presented at the AGCO EME
Virtual Supplier Event
on May 14, 2020

Dear Ahola Transport Team, congratulations to winning the AGCO EME 2019 Logistics Service Provider Award!

AGCO is continuously looking to establish long-term cooperation with its suppliers and service providers. This year's winner AHOLA Transport meets all requirements for a long-lasting relationship. For many years, AGCO and AHOLA have been in a very successful cooperation that was shaped by mutual respect and close collaboration.

What makes this company special is its focus on customer needs and its dedication to do things the right way. The daily operations are handled efficiently, transparent and always targeted to achieve AGCO's quality and performance goals.

Working with this year's winner is extremely easy. It is about getting direct materials being moved effectively from A to B. Taking full end-to-end responsibility for a transport service is directly linked to the award winner's core values. An exceptionally strong dedication to fulfill AGCO's requirements is being recognized and highly appreciated by our teams. Managing over 100 lanes from over 9 countries for AGCO's manufacturing and aftermarket supply chains, while never falling below an average on-time delivery rate of 99% over the course of the years, this LSP's concepts and actions has proven to deliver highest value to our Finnish sites. The outstanding performance next to an excellent communication behavior is highly praised by our teams and supply chain partners.

In addition, this year's winner has shown its ability to provide flexible and fast solutions in very critical situations. Where others might struggle, this company is able to provide just the right services to solve AGCO's challenges. AGCO also appreciates high flexibility in exceptional situations. Our global supply chains are complex and demanding to all parties. The award winner has shown us that they are capable to be part of the chain and that they understand the importance of continuous development.

2Let's give a big hand to our Logistics Service Provider Award winner Ahola Transport!

Dear Ahola Transport Team, congratulations to winning the AGCO EME 2019 Logistics Service Provider Award!
